

INTRODUCTION TO XR PRODUCTION AND THE DIGITAL REALITY

A Filmmaker's Workshop presented by SIFTMedia 215 Collective and The Center for Active Learning.

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 2021
7:00PM - 8:30PM

HAVE YOU ALWAYS BEEN CURIOUS ABOUT VIRTUAL OR EXTENDED REALITY PRODUCTION?

This workshop will explore immersive and interactive digital mediums that range from virtual reality to voice recognition. This workshop is designed to activate storytellers to explore the production and creative process in using these tools, as well as equip creators to brainstorm accessible digital experiences for their audience.

Michaela Ternasky-Holland is a multi-racial Emmy, Webby, and Sheffield Doc/Fest award-winning documentarian, who combines experimental content with traditional mediums. She works with clients as a consultant and creative strategist. She is a recognized public speaker who has presented at international conferences, public institutions, and podcasts. Her work has been featured by TIME, Forbes, The Guardian, Cannes Film Festival, New York Public Library, Tribeca Film Festival, and more.

More Info & Free Registration Here